

Disclosure Form - Conflicts of Interest

OVERVIEW

Appointed employees and elected officials of the County are required to comply with Utah law, Cache County Code, and policies of the County when it comes to disclosures of potential and real conflicts of interest and ethics. The purpose of this form is to inform you about prohibited acts related to employee ethics and for appointed employees and officers to disclose potential and real conflicts of interest. This form is to be completed at the beginning of each calendar year and anytime a new potential or real conflict of interest arises as specified in this form. It is each employee's responsibility to ensure they disclose such conflicts.

PROHIBITED ACTS

Appointed employees and officers of the County shall not:

1. Disclose confidential information acquired by reason of their official position or use that information to secure special privileges or exemptions for themselves or others;
2. Use or attempt to use their official position to secure special privileges for themselves or for others; or
3. Knowingly receive, accept, take, seek, or solicit, directly or indirectly, any gift or loan for themselves or for another, if the gift or loan tends to influence them in the discharge of their official duties.

DISCLOSURE REQUIRED

Please complete the following by signing your initials to indicate whether you do or do not hold any of the following positions. Per Utah Code, the information provided shall be kept on file and may be subject to disclosure to the public. If you are an elected official and answer "yes" to questions 1-3 then your sworn statement will be posted by the County Clerk on the County's website until you leave office in accordance with Utah Code.
